GARE

Breathe, Florian. You're sure none of this blood is yours? Where's the guy now?

FLORIAN

He's still in the camper -his head's next to him- the guards were worried about me but I told them I was fine- and then I ran here-watch the tape-you gotta see the tape.

GARE

Jesus Christ. You cut off the guy's head. Fuck. What did you have him say before you did it?

FLORIAN

Fuck that. We're Old Testament now. We can be New Testament when shit settles down. (looks at his hands) I just walked in, set up the camera and stood behind him and when God didn't tell me not to, got to work on his neck. I didn't plan on doing it. I left his headphones on. I think they got pretty messed up-I'm sorry bout that. I should've taken them off- I just wasn't thinking clearly.

GARE's been pushing the buttons on the flip camera.

GARE

Christ this thing is sticky. (He pushes buttons) Should be the last video, right?

FLORIAN

Push the 'back' button. It'll be the first one.

GARE

I did that.

FLORIAN

Dude, it's only got three buttons- it's not that complicated.

GARE

I'm still looking.

FLORIAN

Push the back button!

GARE

I did that. Are you sure the red light was on?

FLORIAN

Give it to me. (He spits on his hands, tries to wipe them on his pants) Where'd you go? Oh, c'mon, man, where the fuck'd you go?

GARE

Turn it off and on.

FLORIAN

What do you think I'm doing?

GARE

Check some of the other videos, maybe it got mislabeled

FLORIAN

That's not how this thing works. NO NO NO.

GARE

Take the battery out and put it back in.

FLORIAN

I can't open the case. You do it.
