

BUCKLEY CALLBACK SIDES 1

BUCKLEY

Does anyone care what the Japanese think? With all due respect, Mr. Mishima, your country took its best shot, and now it's a footnote to the American century. Despite our profound sympathy, the place is a wasteland, culturally, politically -- Flooding us with cheap radios.

And now this "Akuma-shin". I'm sorry, but I must say that this is the most preposterous -- the most PREPOSTEROUS sham we've been asked to swallow since the New Deal. And how is it that no one, no one in Japan or Indochina or anywhere else that some flight of fancy manifests a chimera, ever manages to snap a picture when this 300-foot monster appears? Is the thing copyrighted or something?
