

SIENNA/ SALAZAR DAWNIEL/ MEL-LYSSA SIDES

INT. TANGERINE SUNSET HALLWAY -NIGHT

SIENNA

So are you like a butler?

DAWNIEL

Oh I fill a vast variety of needs in this house of the damned. I am a scientist you see. I had to flee the states because they were such small minded and superstitious people who saw my work as an affront to God.

SIENNA

Fucking alt-right, antifa fucks. I hear ya.

DAWNIEL

Were cows torn inside out? Yes. Did I fuse a goat and a ram together? Yes.

SIENNA

Sounds like you just made a goat into a goat.

DAWNIEL

Did I keep a young boy's brain alive in a jar to access Call of Duty cheat codes. Yes! But I kept the brain alive!

SIENNA

Okay so you're kind of a mad scientist.

DAWNIEL

Mad? Did you say mad? Well let's see I tell people I'm from Chicago and they say "you must REALLY love the Cubs." It's like they don't know Chicago has a SOUTH side. White Sox all the way. Or the infiltration of pumpkin spice into all aspects of society, we're killing the season of Autumn with climate change, fucking pumpkin spice ain't fixing that.

DAWNIEL (CONT'D)

Oh shit, and EVERYBODY LOVES ZOMBIES until someone makes a few, then its all like you're an amoral monster. I just tapped into society's shitty zeigeist but I'm the asshole? And to top it off, the Lenzes let me further my research, but turned me into their fucking slave. So yeah, yeah, I'm a MAD scientist. I'm fucking pissed. Sorry, I just-

SIENNA

Never apologize, Dawniel. I understand your rage and loneliness Most assholes on this planet just see you as the typical angry sad sack that make up the comments section of most any social media page. The kind who howl in rage when all their caps locked misspelled comments and ironic emojis have all been used up and their pathetic lives remain unaltered. But Dawniel you're like me. You're special. You actually create things. You shouldn't be stuck here, you should be out there, helping make my world a better place.
