

MY BREAKUP WITH CAROLINE

Starring DAVID HAVERTY as David/Artist

Feb 2-4, 8PM, The Complex, Theater D

Talent

David Haverty, Writer, Actor, Producer, Director

This is David's first foray into solo acting. He has workshopped this piece thoroughly in the unofficial spaces of his apartment building and the boardwalk in Venice, to rave reviews by the neighboring homeless.

Go to www.youtube.com/IMissYouSOMuchCaroline for the upcoming "My Breakup with Caroline" Web Series!

Also Featuring

David Haverty as Artist

David Haverty as Caroline

David Haverty as Keith

David Haverty as Terry

David Haverty as Spirit Guide

David Haverty as Abraham Lincoln

David Haverty as Himself

Produced By: David Haverty

David Haverty has produced many things, most of which are sandwiches and ranting blogs about Caroline, but this is his first production of a major piece of theatre.

Program

ACT ONE: The Wooing

In which David first meets Caroline, and their blossoming love takes wing. From this rosy dawn emerges the young flower of our artist's narrative. Features pantomime and short musical interlude on the dulcimer.

ACT TWO: Après moi, le déluge!

The infamous Magic Mountain scene, in which the first ruptures in the happiness of young love is revealed. Climax in the danse macabre of Keith's solstice party.

ACT THREE: Healing?

An outward look towards a life that could be...

A life... without... Caroline.

(?)

My Quest:

I, David Haverty, have made it my express purpose to learn and grow from the PTSD I acquired from dating Caroline. Thereby I shall attain the success I want and deserve.

David Haverty

An artist, writer, actor, lover, Haverty does it all. Hobbies include crying in sleep, talking about Caroline, writing plays about Caroline, reminiscing about last year's awesome Halloween costume, and baking.

For representation, call Sheryl Tolkien at 818-275-6420.

Please stay afterward for a short talkback and light refreshments of Subway sandwiches.

Thanks to:

The Complex, Mom, Dad, Grandma Winnie, my best friend in the whole world Terry, the Pensacola Jacques Lecoq School of Mime for continued guidance and inspiration, and of course, Mr. Snuggles, without whom the long nights of grueling rehearsal would be absolutely impossible.

Mille Grazie, Enjoy the Journey!

David

The Complex
6476 Santa Monica Blvd
Los Angeles CA 90038