FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Sacred Fools Presents the World Premiere Comedy
*Tangerine Sunset

Los Angeles, CA (March 7, 2019)- Sacred Fools Theater Company is concluding its 22st season on a comically twisted note with the World Premiere of Tangerine Sunset, written by Peter Fluet and directed by JJ Mayes. Opening Friday, March 15 and running through April 13 on the Main Stage at the Broadwater Theater Complex, the hilariously bizarre comedy will run Fridays and Saturdays at 8pm and Sundays at 7pm.

About *Tangerine Sunset

Every paradise has a ~~tragic~~ (no, strike that) ~~comic~~ (sure, but still not quite it...) dark side. This is the story of a group of unlucky souls who find themselves the involuntary guests of a palatial estate on a mysterious private island. These celebrities, billionaires, madmen, and innocents desperately try to survive the night with their lives and sanity intact.

Tangerine Sunset began as an ongoing serial in Sacred Fools' long-running late-night sensation, Serial Killers. Premiering back in January of 2015, the piece ran a total of seven episodes, ultimately taking second place in the Serial Killers Playoffs.

"From an improv show in Hollywood, to the long running late night show Serial Killers, to three years of workshopping, the screwball gothic horror Tangerine Sunset has been a labor of love and madness." says author Peter Fluet. "Sacred Fools has, every step of the way, helped me bring this dark comedy to life even when I wanted to murder it."
